

How did you hear about The Catatonia Foundation, and why did you want to get involved?

Dr. McCall:

I was approached by the board, if I remember correctly, and was thrilled to have been asked to participate. I think it's a noble cause, which doesn't have enough light shed upon it. I think the foundation's a terrific idea and I'm looking forward to seeing what it can accomplish.