

What do you hope The Catatonia Foundation can accomplish?

Dr. McCall:

There's so many things on the list we would like to see accomplished, but in essence, education is, I would think, the number one priority because from education comes awareness and from awareness comes accurate detection and diagnosis. And it really all starts there. Until we have awareness and education, we really will not have accomplished what we want to accomplish.