

What do you hope The Catatonia Foundation can accomplish?

Dr. Beach:

For me, the most exciting part of The Catatonia Foundation is just raising awareness, helping to raise awareness among physicians, but also helping to raise awareness among patients and families and providing a home for people to learn more about the illness that may be affecting their loved ones, and hopefully to get connected with people who can help manage and treat that.