

Within your hospital setting, do you do educational seminars or grand rounds on catatonia?

Dr. Cuevas:

We like to study this condition, and we usually make grand rounds and invite other services — especially neurology, geriatrics, and internal medicine — to participate in them.