

Can propranolol help in cases of severe overwhelm leading to catatonia?

Dr. Northoff:

I would always prefer first a non-pharmacological situation, but it also depends upon the subject. Some like a pharmacological thing, some a non-pharmacological, yeah? But definitely, propranolol of course makes perfect sense. And I know that there's some case reports also, about propranolol and catatonia.